Washingtonians Order Arrest of Pseudo Son of Secretary Daniels

Clever detective work on the part of a Washington woman and her three daughters resulted in the capture and identification of Joseph Levy, who posed as a son of Secretary of the Navy Daniels, according to a special dispatch to The Herald received last night from J. E. Whitesell, manager of Hotel Danvers, Wildwood, N. J. The report gives full credit for the arrest to the "shadowed" impersonator, while the other two members of the party notified the police, the message says.

Believing they have in Mr. Ray a man who towers above sectional popularity and a business man of "wide acquaintance with all classes of citizens," the members of the association, armed with these assurances, stand patriotically determined to fight to the last ditch in an effort to land this important post for the man who they believe is best fitted to hold it.

The letter in the hands of President Wilson indorsing Mr. Ray follows:

"Hon. Woodrow Wilson,
"President of the United States,
"Washington, D. C.
"Sir: At a meeting of the executive committee of the Petworth Citizens' Association held on the 21st instant it was ordered by the said committee, acting for and in the name of the association that the President of the United States be requested to name as successor to Maj. Oliver P. Newman as Commissioner of the District of Columbia, a man of the highest caliber, a man of the highest ability and integrity, and a progressive, conscientious civic leader. He is a Democrat with a wide acquaintance and is respected by all classes of our citizens. It is our unanimous opinion that he is eminently and especially qualified to fulfill the duties of Commissioner, and we sincerely hope that Mr. Ray may have your most favorable consideration in the filing of this office.

"It was further ordered that the President of this Association, Mr. Charles J. James, and the vice president, Mr. Jesse C. Suter, be appointed a special committee to present the record of this action to you.

HEAR ARMY OFFICER ON SERIOUS CHARGE

Reichmann Denies Disloyalty and Pro-German Utterances.

What amounts to the trial of Lieut. Col. Carl Reichmann, U. S. A., for alleged pro-German tendencies and disloyalty began yesterday at the hearing before a subcommittee of the Senate Committee on Military Affairs.

Col. and Mrs. S. L. Faison, both of whom were present at a tea in Chicago which Col. Reichmann attended, appeared before the subcommittee. It was at this tea that Reichmann was supposed to have uttered the sentiments which are now charged against him. Mrs. Faison said, however, she thought the wrong construction had been placed upon the officer's remarks; that he had not so much expressed friendship for German military methods as to state facts.

Letters from Mrs. James Anderson, wife of a Canadian colonel, and a letter to Senator Pomerene were both produced at the hearing. The Anderson letters are said to have contained the original charges through which Senator Pomerene held up Reichmann's confirmation as a brigadier general.

Reichmann himself appeared before the subcommittee in obedience to an order from the War Department. He holds that he is perfectly loyal. He began yesterday by telling of his birth in Germany, and the story of his coming to the United States when a young man. His testimony will be continued today.

White ash grade—Broken, $4.35; egg, $4.65; stove, $4.90; chestnut, $4.90; pea, $4.90.

Red ash grade—Broken, $4.75; egg, $4.95; stove, $5.20; chestnut, $5.20; pea, $5.20.

Lykens Valley grade—Broken, $5.00; egg, $5.20; stove, $5.50; chestnut, $5.50; pea, $5.50.

The President's attitude toward the anthracite coal men is not considered as a factor in his position with the Lykens Valley coal and coke companies, but the fact that the executive points out that the coal men are not to be taken to indicate that the whole scale of prices, down to the retail prices to the consumer, will be fixed by the coal administrator. The inflated prices which have endured for several years are to be slashed, and Dr. Garfield is relied upon to fix a retail price that will satisfy the consumer and assure a fair margin of profit to the dealer.

Dr. Garfield will be through with his duties as wheat price fixer by September 1, and will then be free to devote all his energies to building up an organization to see that the President's coal prices are adhered to all along the line.

Tammany Will Support Winner at Primaries

New York, Aug. 23.—Charles F. Murphy, Tammany leader, today asserted that the organization would support the winner of the Democratic primary for the mayoralty. Two names have been entered for the contest—Judge John F. Hyland, designated by the Democratic fusion committee, and William R. Hearst, named in a petition by nearly 4,000 independent voters.

"If there is a contest in the primaries," said Murphy, "we will support Judge Hyland. But if Mr. Hearst should run in the primaries and should win the organization will support him."

RAY IS INDORSED FOR COMMISSIONER

The Petworth Citizens' Association Sends Letter to President.

Confident he is the "right man" for the job, members of the Petworth Citizens' Association have enthusiastically framed a letter to President Wilson urging personal consideration of the candidacy of Charles W. # PLAN TO SEND TROOPS AWAY

Final Arrangements Effect- ed for Entrainment of District Conscripts.

The men will be notified to appear before their local exemption boards on September 4th, about 11 a. m. They will then be informed that they are officially in the service of the United States and will reassemble at a central point, probably the Western High School.

Those who do not desire to spend the night in the District Armory will be given permission to go to their homes after filling out official blanks and will report on September 5th, at a central point to be determined, probably the Union Station.

The moment the local boards have knowledge that any of the men summoned has failed to appear at the stipulated hour, they will turn their names over to the police with instructions to "bring the men in."

All men who were rejected because of underweight will have to be re-examined by the local boards, and their fitness determined according to the new weight standard of the provost marshal general.

There will probably be a new exemption board, known as No. 12 appointed for the District. This board will have charge of the physical examination of men transferred for service from other jurisdictions.

Men called in the draft can have the benefit of preliminary drill by report to the National Guard Armory, 474 L street, on Tuesday and Thursday.

One of the recommendations of the committee on the draft is to secure for each local board the services of one member of the Military Service Legion, who will assist the local board in the mobilization and entrainment of the selected men of the respective divisions.

Preston Gibson Emulates Fighting Spirit of His Son

That Preston Gibson, Washington clubfellow and society favorite, may fight shoulder to shoulder on the French front with his son by his first marriage, Henry Field Gibson, now with the British forces somewhere in France, is a possibility brought about by Mr. Gibson's enlistment in the American field service as an ambulance driver. For the first time, according to drawing-room gossip of Washington and Newport, the real reason for his enlistment for foreign service is disclosed—a father's desire not to be outdone by his son in upholding democracy's cause.

EXPLORERS SEND WORD PARTY SAVED

Arctic Expedition Returns After Four Years Among Ice.
(By the International News Service.)
New York, Aug. 23.—Donald McMillan, head of the Crocker Land Arctic Expedition, today sent a wireless dispatch to President Osborn of the American Museum of Natural History, stating that all the party were well on the steamship Neptune. The dispatch indicated that all his collections and equipment were safe. The wireless, dated yesterday, said: "All well. Every one and everything on board. Hovey left Disco by plane in July. Ice very heavy. Melville Bay. Capt. Bob (Bartlett) did the work. Probably proceed to St. Johns."

This probably indicated that the expedition, which reached the expedition's base at Etah, North Greenland, August 1, took on board all the members of the expedition, which had been marooned in the far north for nearly four years.

The Hovey mentioned is Dr. Edmund Hovey, curator of geology, who took a relief expedition north and was himself marooned. He arrived in Copenhagen two weeks ago and is expected here daily.

The wireless was sent from the steamer Neptune.

Seta Gospel to Rest.

All of that was as nothing to Preston Gibson when he heard his young son, the son born of his romantic marriage to Mina Field, daughter of Mrs. Thomas Nelson Page, whose husband was Ambassador at Rome, with whom he eloped when he was less than 20 and she a mere schoolgirl, was in the trenches with old and hardened soldiers.

Young Gibson's gratulante and aunt are the Chief Justice of the United States and Mrs. Edward D. White, the latter a sister to Preston Gibson's mother. It was from the Montgomery

INJURED SAILOR LOCKED IN CELL

Suffers Six Hours Before Medical Aid Is Summoned.

With a half-healed bullet wound received while he was on active service in French waters, and with a weakened heart from his eighteen years as a member of the fighting forces of the nation, William Moyd, 35 years old, of Baltimore, last night lay for six hours on a narrow iron cot in a cell in the Sixth Precinct Police Station before medical aid was summoned to him.

Arrested shortly after 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon while on his way to a drug store to buy some medicine because he was walking in the streets in the uniform he had won by first-class service in the Naval Reserve Corps, from which he has an honorable discharge because of permanent disability, Moyd's military training made him too courageous to whimper when he was placed in the cell, although he knew that he was risking his life by staying in such a place overnight.

It was not until 9 o'clock last night that his landlady, visited the police station and insisted that he be removed to a hospital, that the police acted and called the Casualty Hospital ambulance.

Was In Fresh Hospital.

On examining Moyd, the doctor said that his heart was in such a weakened condition that a night on the hard cell cot might well work serious injury to him.

The wound, which was the primary cause of Moyd's discharge from the Naval Reserve Corps was not examined at the station house.

Before he was invalided to this country, Moyd was a patient in a French base hospital. After preliminary treatment there he was sent to the Naval Hospital at Norfolk, from which he was released ten days ago.

Of no more use to the government

BUSINESS OF WAR BURIES PEACE NOTE

Conditions Too Unstable to Permit Consideration of Pope's Plea.

The information that Japan had decided to reject the Pope's peace plea brought no comment from the State Department last night. Mr. Lansing still refuses to discuss the note.

The United States is so deeply concerned with the internal problems of her own mobilization for war, and the other allies are so absorbed with the progress of the fighting on the western front and the rumors from Russia, that it was pointed out, conditions are too unstable and too dissimilar from those prevailing when the note was written to permit of its consideration at this time.

The President, so far as can be learned, has yet given the note little consideration. He has been thoroughly absorbed in the coal price fixing problem for the last week. Yesterday he began the study of the still more complex problem of fixing the price of steel and copper. He also took up the labor situation, so that it is not believed that the note will get his attention for some days yet.

That substantial agreement with all of the terms of the Pope's note will be contained in President Wilson's answer is beginning to be an accepted prediction here. But it is believed that he will add that the military and autocratic which brought the United States into the war after plunging all Europe into hostilities must be beaten and eliminated before the Pope's terms can be made effective.

INDIANS NOT LIABLE TO DRAFT OPERATION

Those Maintaining Tribal Relations Exempt, Gen. Crowder Holds.

Indians who are maintaining their tribal relations will not be liable to the present or to future drafts, according to a letter sent out by Gen. Crowder, chief of the enforcement of the nation-wide draft law, to Webster Ballinger, a Washington attorney, late yesterday afternoon.

The letter came as the answer to a statement and an opinion that took the form of a petition to the President that Indians be exempted from the draft. Mr. Ballinger was chosen by the Minnesota Chippewas and by various tribes of Indians in Oklahoma to ask the Great White Father to exempt their sons from the draft.

The opinion sent to the President by Attorney Ballinger and later referred by Mr. Wilson to the War Department stated that as the Indians were treated as practical incompetents and as wards of the government, it was not fair to them to make them subject to the law that was aimed directly at citizens of the United States.

According to Mr. Ballinger the registration of the Indians was legal enough, as the law for registration was made to apply to aliens, citizens as well, but the drawing of the same Indians for military service, when they are known as wards and incompetents, was unjust.

It is said that three-fifths of the Indian population of the United States is covered by special laws created for their benefit and treating them as dependents of the government. Only two-fifths of the red-skinned population comes under the class of citizens. The petition sent by Mr. Ballinger on the part of the Indians did not include these Indian citizens.

Attorney Ballinger believes that future drafts will be so made as to take care of the Indian proposition. Indians at present in the service as a result of the draft can still regain their freedom by making an appeal to their draft board.
